STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A concise statement of the grounds on which jurisdiction is invoked. Rule 14.1 (d)

When public not special interest requires, the federal court may relinquish it's jurisdiction and subsequently it's jurisdictional laches in favor of the state courts, provided the private rights of the individual does not suffer.

re. CV_99-5067 U.S. Ct., APP., Fed. Cir.
in. CV_99-1592 U.S. DIST. Ct., EDNY

The doctrines of laches, estoppel, and recusal were flagrantly violated to the utter dismay, shock, and legal disadvantage of plaintiff and his, giving rise to gross financial, moral and social crisis and ultimate disbelief.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE
BACKGROUND

The writ of certiorari is not a matter of right but of judicial discretion. (Herein is a conflict between the decision of which review is sought and a decision of another appellate court on the same issue.). Note the court at the Netherlands on purview accords 18 U.S.C.A.2421 as amended in 1986 and Maryland Code section 10-631 et.al.-with a questionable reference to Title 42, U.S. Code 1983 (a),(c) with footnote to 1983 (c) -and proposes the issue (why is this question raised in a national codification at law or in the alternative at fact of law?).

In the state court of Maryland at (03)-020097 Plaintiffs raise the issue (is plaintiff and his singled out to be defaulted by the whims and edicts of special interest?).
As to the doctrine of laches and the doctrine of recusal and estoppel as these doctrines relate to cause in controversy Jud. Code 28,28 U.S.C.A. 71 issues "where plaintiff alleges joint and concurrent acts of negligence by defendants, plaintiff has right to sue defendants as joint tort-feasors, and if he has good and just cause of action against them, as such he is entitled to present his case on such joint cause of action as is alleged in complaint, without removal to federal court. Cause of action is subject matter of the controversy, and, for purpose of the suit, whatever plaintiff declares it to be in his pleadings. (Judicial recusal follows when a master attempts to pervert alter or misalign cause of action during discovery or at scheduling".).

Herein the public order of Hon. Rader, U.S. Ct. App. Fed. Cir. at 99-5067 affirms "in his barely comprehensible complaint the Plaintiff appears to be suing a hospital for its confinement of the plaintiff's daughter, however, this Court's jurisdiction only extends to claims against the United States, see 28 U.S.C. 1491 (a) 1. To the extent that the complaint seeks damages against the U.S. this Court doesn't have Jurisdiction over claims of violations of an individual's civil or Constitutional rights...nor does the Court's jurisdiction extend to tort claims against the Government official.....

(1) Plaintiffs on the contrary and in fact of law clearly set out it's right to address grievances against two privately owned corporate bodies who did in fact and in law violate Plaintiffs human, civil and legal rights of entitlements. And due to recusal based on the late entry upon the court records of some make shift CERTIFICATE OF INTEREST (after the fact of recusal before the Court at the EDNY), ie they absented themselves from a Court ordered pre-conference discovery session of date may 24, 1999. Said default placed Plaintiffs and their cause of action in extreme jeopardy.

The Courts have further altered, restricted and misaligned plaintiffs attempts to prosecute their cause of action by arbitrarily assigning three United States attorneys from the 'commercial litigation unit' to prosecute in behalf of the defendants (appellees) who are private corporate bodies-much to the surprise and dismay and subsequent gross disadvantage of Plaintiffs. (CF the equal protection clause of the United States Constitutional Amendment Fourteen.).

Note: The federal court EDNY elicited cause of action and held it as a certified constitutional cause and served notice on each of the defendants chief corporate officer as required by law. (How can one federal circuit hold a constitutional question and in the negative alternative another federal circuit admit cause but in the same instant in time and space deny cause and jurisdictional laches as these refer to the removal of causes?

STATEMENT OF THE CASE
NOTE; TITLE 42, U.S. CODE 1983 (c) objectively attempts to address and equate legal inequities as, held in our judicial and social codes. Hopefully and prayfully the EQUAL PROTECTION CLAUSE OF "DUE PROCESS PREVAILS HEREIN.

THE AMBULIENT (one) Mrs. Dianne K. Franklin was forced to take these and tried in some Court where her parents Attorney's presence was suspect.

This firm has been retained by the Montgomery Mall Limited Partnership to represent and protect their interests in an action brought by James King under the case number styled above.

In reviewing the papers submitted by Mr. King, it is this firm's intention and request to move under various grounds against these papers under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Under Rule 12(h)(1) for forum non-convenient. Under Rule 12(h)(1), the venue of this action is inappropriate and improper. Under Rule 12(e), defendant wishes to move for a more definitive statement. Under Rule 12(h)(1), defendant wishes to move for lack of personal jurisdiction over the answering defendant. Under Rule 17 in that the plaintiffs James King and Frances king lack standing to sue. Finally under USCA Sections 1404 and 1406.

Initially, the plaintiff claims in the pleadings that his daughter was shopping at the Montgomery Mall in Maryland when this incident took place. Plaintiff has named Westfield Enterprises, Inc., as a named defendant. Westfield Enterprises, Inc., is a non-entity. The papers were served in Los Angeles, California via mail at Westfield Corporation. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "A" to this letter is a property ownership list for the Montgomery Mall. The proper owner of the location where the plaintiff claims that the incident took place is Montgomery Mall Limited Partnership, a Maryland limited partnership. A general partner in that business is Montgomery Mall of Maryland, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company. A managing member of the general partner is Westfield America Investor, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership. Finally the general partner of that company is Westfield America G.P., Inc., a Delaware Corporation.

Westfield Enterprises is an unknown entity to Montgomery Mall Limited Partnership.

The forum that plaintiff has selected is non-convenient to the Montgomery Mall in that all of the witnesses and employees of the Montgomery Mall upon information and belief are domiciled in Maryland and not New York. Furthermore, there are no ties to New York State with the Montgomery Mall Limited Partnership. Montgomery Mall does not transact business in New York State and maintains no offices in New York State. In addition to the forum being non-convenient, it is also an improper venue based on the lack of long arm jurisdiction that this court would have over Montgomery Mall, a Maryland limited partnership. Based on those basic reasons, defendant Montgomery Mall will seek to move this court to transfer venue of this matter from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York to the United States District Court in Maryland, Southern Division.

With regard to the more definitive pleading motion, the pleadings in and of themselves are vague and ambiguous in that the defendant cannot reasonably frame a responsive pleading.

The pleadings received by defendant herein have no beginning paragraph, are not numbered in any manner -and are completely incomprehensible as to the allegations against Montgomery Mall Limited Partnership in this matter. A more definitive statement of the defects will be pointed out in the motion to the court.

With regard to the motion for lack of jurisdiction, the complaint was mailed to Westfield Corporation in Los Angeles, California. No copy of the pleadings were ever served on the defendant Montgomery Mall a limited partnership in Maryland. Based on plaintiffs failure to properly serve the pleadings on the defendant herein, it is submitted that plaintiff has failed to obtain proper jurisdiction over the defendant herein.

With regard to the lack of standing, there is no indication in the pleadings of a guardian being appointed for an infant or otherwise incompetent person. The named plaintiffs as parents do not have standing to bring this suit,

I have been advised that a status conference is scheduled for June 11, 1999. If your Honor wishes the motion to be made prior to that time, the undersigned will endeavor to meet those time constraints. There has been appearance made in the action to date because of the vagueness and ambiguity in the plaintiffs complaint. The undersign respectfully requests an additional thirty days to serve a responsive pleading upon the plaintiff if the court does not grant the requested motions herein.

Proceedings include all events.

REASONS RELIED ON FOR THE ALLOWANCE OF THE WRIT OF CERTIORARI (Rules 10 and 14.1 (h)

I

PETITIONER IS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN AND SUBSEQUENTLY AN AMERICAN TAX PAYER. HOWEVER, AN INTERNATIONAL LEGAL BODY FAILS TO ACCORD AND DOES QUESTION THE LEGAL INTENT AND STATUS OF TITLE 42 U.S. CODE 1983 (a) (c). AS A CONSEQUENCE THE QUESTION ARISES (Is this code based upon Social Mores, Physical Characteristics or in the negative alternative differing City, State, and Federal Taxation Standards?

II

PETITIONER STANDS TO OBJECT AND ADDRESS THE ISSUE OF 'THE WHIMS AND ARROGANCE OF SPECIAL INTEREST AS IT HINDERS AND SUPPRESSES THE EFFORTS OF THE AMERICAN TAX PAYER AS HE SEEKS JUSTICE IN THE AMERICAN JUDICIAL SYSTEM. THESE WHIMS AND WORSE WERE ALLOWED, AIDED AND ABETTED infra 99-CV-1592 EDNY and 99-5067 U.S. Ct., App., FED. CIR., when in 99-CV-1592 EDNY Defts. were allowed to absent themselves at a COURT HEARING REQUIRED BY RULE 26(f)F.R.C.P

AND IN THE NEGATIVE ALTERNATIVE THESE SAME DEFENDANTS WERE GIVEN LEGAL FROM THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE WHERE PETITIONER AND HIS STRUGGLED WITH A SERIES OF CONSTITUTIONAL CERTIFIED QUESTIONS. WHICH TERMINATED IN THE JUDGE OR MASTER'S RULING OR RECOMMENDATION TO REMOVE THE PLEADINGS TO SOME STATE COURT AND AGAINST AN INDIVIDUAL BY DECREE AS WELL AS JURISDICTIONAL INCONVENIENCE To THE DEFENDANTS (the lack of a Cause of Action and in personam.). WHICH IS STRICTLY AGAINST THE UNITED STATES CODE.

III

THE WESTFIELD ENTERPRISES FINALLY ENTERED UPON THE COURT RECORDS SOME VERY INCOMPREHENSIBLE CERTIFICATE OF INTEREST, BUT IN THE ALTERNATIVE THE WASHINGTON ADVENTIST HOSPITAL HAS NOT TO THIS DATE ENTERED UPON THE COURT RECORD ANY FORM OF CERTIFICATE BUT DID IN THE FACT OF DEMURRAGE ACCORD A HOSPITAL BILL IN EXCESS OF TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS TO THE ATTENTION OF PETITIONER AND HIS 'INTERIM GUARDIAN' (one) MRS. DIANNE K. FRANKLIN. (TAXATION WITHOUT ANY CHANCE OF LEGAL REPRESENTATION.).

IV

PETITIONER'S 'INTERIM GUARDIAN'S MIRANDA RIGHTS WERE TAKEN WHEN AT THE SCENE SHE WAS ACCOSTED, HELD IN CUSTODY AND SEARCHED AND NOT TO THIS DATE GIVEN A BILL OF PARTICULARS FOR SAID QUESTIONING. (illegally held at some points fourty eight hours without an opportunity to call an attorney or her parents). Cf. THE MEMO TO ATTORNEY ROGER GALVIN.

PETITIONER AND HIS SPOUSE"S PERSONAL ENTITLEMENTS (name, addresses, phone numbers and serial/file numbers) were altered/deleted FROM POTENTIAL COURT RECORDS THAT WERE LATER PRESETED AT SOME HIGHLY SECRET COURT HEARING REGARDING PETITIONER'S INTERIM GUARDIAN'S INVOLUNTARY CONFINEMENT AT THE WASHINGTON ADVENTIST HOSPITAL IN VIOLATION OF THE EQUAL

Note: Estoppel by Record bars a second action between the same parties on an issue necessarily raised and decided__ the first action. Preclusion is to deny the truth of a matter set forth in a record, whether the record is Judicial or legislative. Also to deny the fact legally adjudicated (free of incrimination and obstruction of Justice)by a Court of competent Jurisdiction. The Doctrine prevents a party not only from litigating again what was actually litigated in the former case, but litigating what might have been litigated therein.

THE ACT:THE AMBULIENT (one) Mrs. Dianne K. Franklin's illegal and forceable Involuntary Confinement.

ILLEGAL INCARCERATION BE sua sponte SUPRESSED AND et seq expunged from an otherwise unblemished personal history of PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE.

REASONS

1. Said incarceration was the willful act--- of premeditated .prejudice tarnished with malice of forethought.
2. Illegal tests were performed while ambulient was incarcerated, and further medication administered that hindered her prognosis from a prior cardiac ailment.
3. The day before her forced and illegal confinement ambulient had been the victim of malicious assault to the extent of battery , (cf The legal files of Dr. Gary London.)
4. Her parents were not notified of this confinement for well over a period of 48 hours.(Their personal entitlements including their telephone numbers were stricken and or removed from potential Court Records.).

The American Civil Liberities Union's Purview is requested.

I am the United Federation of Teacher's District Representative for Community School District 23, in Brooklyn, New York. I am able to certify, after consulting our union records, that Mr. James G. King, (Board of Education file number 386462,) a teacher at I.S.275K in District 23, is a member in good standing of the Union Federation of Teachers.

When we spoke on the telephone, you indicated that you needed an official of the U.F.T. to appear in Federal District Court in order to confirm that you are a U.F.T. member in good standing. I checked with our attorneys and was told that it is not normally necessary for a union official to personally present such information. I was told that a letter to that effect would suffice, so I am enclosing a notarized letter to that effect.

On demurrers: the Privacy Act.

An objection made by one party to his opponent's pleadings alleging that he ought not to answer it for some defect in law in the pleading.
CF. R.L. Davies and Co. V. Blomberg, 185 N.C. 496,117 S.E. 497.

It imparts that the objecting party will not proceed, but will wait the judgement of the court whether he is bound so to do.

Cf. Kramer V. Barth, 139 N.Y.S. 341, 344, 79 misc. 80

Note: The Supreme Court declares that, if an independent suit is by the state permitted subsequent to another suit it may be maintained in the federal court.

Conclusion

Where liability of defendants, s set forth in pleadings is joint/and or both joint and several…same is not separable 'separable controversy' (either in fact or at law.).

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES G. KING,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant-Appellee,

and

THE WASHINGTON ADVENTIST HOSPITAL and THE WESTFIELD ENTERPRISES, INC.,

Defendants.

Before CLEVENGER, RADER, and BRYSON, Circuit Judges.

RADER, Circuit Judge.

ORDER

James G. King appeals from the Court of Federal Claims' judgment dismissing his complaint for lack of jurisdiction. We determine that the Court of Federal Claims' judgment should be summarily affirmed.

King filed a complaint in the Court of Federal Claims on March 24, 1999. On March 25, the Court of Federal Claims issued an order directing the dismissal of his complaint. The order stated:

> This pro se plaintiff moves for leave of the Court to proceed in forma pauperis to pursue a claim against private citizens. Upon consideration of the plaintiff's submissions, his motion to proceed in forma pauperis is granted. The Complaint, however, is to be dismissed.
> In his barely comprehensible Complaint, the plaintiff appears to be suing a hospital for its confinement of the plaintiff's daughter. However, this Court's jurisdiction only extends to claims against the United States. See 28 U.S.C. § 1491(a)(1).
> To the extent that the Complaint seeks damages against the United States, this Court does not have jurisdiction over claims of violations of an individual's civil or constitutional rights. See generally 28 U.S.C. § 1491; see also Martinez v. United States, 26 Cl. Ct. 1471, 1476 (1992), aff'd, 11 F.3d 1069 (Fed. Cir. 199[3]). Nor does the Court's jurisdiction extend to tort claims against the Government officials. See Caravella v. United States, 9 Cl. Ct. 280, 285 (1985), aff'd, 795 F.2d 1016 (Fed. Cir. 1986).
> For the foregoing reasons, the plaintiff's Compiaint will be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly.

Summary disposition of a case "is appropriate, inter alia, when the position of one is so clearly correct as a matter of law that no substantial question regarding the me of the appeal exists." Joshua v. United States, 17 F.3d 378, 380 (Fed. Cir. . In this case, it is clear that the Court of Federal Claims lacked jurisdiction over ; complaint.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) The Court of Federal Claims' judgment is summarily affirmed.

(2) Each side shall bear its own costs.

This pro se plaintiff moves for leave of the Court to proceed in forma pauperis to pursue a claim against private entities. Upon consideration of the plaintiff's submissions, his motion to proceed in forma pauperis is granted. The Complaint, however, is to be dismissed.
